17 Respondent.

Case Number 4-94-cv-641-CW

DEATH-PENALTY CASE

ORDER ON DISCOVERY ISSUE

18 On August 11, 2014, Petitioner filed a status report
19 outlining the status of discovery proceedings. Petitioner has 20 been seeking to obtain files and records covered by a subpoena
21 duces tecum pertinent to witnesses who had testified against him
22 in his underlying California capital case. In his status report, 23 Petitioner states that, while the Oakland Police Department has 24 provided twenty-four of twenty-six reports pertinent to eight lay
25 witnesses against him, the Alameda County District Attorney's 26 Office has not provided any further records pertinent to 27 jailhouse informant Arthur Allen. He suggest a brief hearing
28 before a magistrate judge to address the remaining matters.

1 In lieu of referring the matter to a magistrate judge, the 2 Court directs the interested parties to meet and confer in good 3 faith regarding any outstanding discovery matters within twenty-4 eight days of the date of this Order. If the dispute is not 5 resolved, Petitioner may file a motion for discovery within 6 fourteen days thereafter.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.
